

USHAHIDI

The screenshot shows the Ushahidi website interface. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links: HOME, REPORT AN INCIDENT, CONTACT US, ABOUT, BLOG, and HOW TO HELP. Below the navigation is a map of Kenya with several red flame icons indicating incidents. A pop-up window displays a list of events:

- [Feb 9, 2008] Naivasha youth is organizing a peac...
- [Feb 3, 2008] Using sport as antidote to violence...
- [Feb 1, 2008] Reaching out to the Mungiki...
- [Jan 31, 2008] Roadblocks removed after peace effo...
- [Jan 27, 2008] Police quelling an uprising by yout...
- [Jan 27, 2008] Killings in Naivasha...
- [Jan 27, 2008] Naivasha - house burned down with 2...
- [Jan 27, 2008] Violence in Naivasha...

Below the map, there are buttons for "Submit An Incident!" and "Submit Via SMS". A text box says "Send your SMS to 6007 on your phone (Safaricom/Celtel)". There is also a "Subscribe To Ushahidi News" button. At the bottom, there is a table of incidents:

Incident	Location	Date	Description	Images
Anxiety increases in IDP Camps as supplies	Mathare	Apr 7, 2008	Food and other essential supplies are fast dwindling in the camps for Internally Displaced

Project

Une plateforme open source pour collecter des témoignages en cas de catastrophe humanitaire

Territory : Kenya

Link to an online resource : <https://www.ushahidi.com>

Language of your contribution : French Attached resources language : English

Ushahidi est une plateforme open source de cartographie sociale. Elle collecte des témoignages envoyés par mail, SMS, tweets... pour générer des cartes en ligne. Basé sur le principe du crowdourcing, Ushahidi est notamment utilisée en cas de crise humanitaire (comme Haiti en 2010).

La baseline officielle de la plate-forme : "Make smart decisions with a data management system that rapidly collects data from the crowd and visualizes what happened, when and where."

